

LAVENDER LAVISH BLUE

KEY FEATURES

- Lavender Lavish are bred to withstand a multitude of challenging climatic conditions
- Lavish Blue stands apart with its large, ruffled, deep lilac-blue wings, that cover the entire flower head
- Contrasting blackish-purple flowers peek out between the ruffles
- Flower heads are produced almost year-round and are a magnet for bees and other pollinating insects
- Forms a dense, compact, exceptionally aromatic, small shrub
- An occasional light trim maintains shape and promotes further flowering
- Wind, coastal, drought, light frost, heat and humidity tolerant – exceptional!
- 0.5m x 0.5m